Caroline Sarah Kersh Gray

The following is from information supplied by Mrs. Jeanne Kersh Johnston, 727 Hillmont, Jackson, Ms. Much of it was submitted by W. Clyde Everett, Mr & Mrs Clyde E. Huffman, and other children and grandchildren of William and Caroline Gray.

Notes to the original material supplied by Glen E. Deas, 1987, from additional research on the Gray line.

The oldest child of Allen David Kersh and Sarah Regene (Rhodes) Kersh was Caroline Sarah Kersh, born in Rankin Co. 27 Feb 1839. She and William M. Gray were married 11 July 1855 by Rev. Jacob Carr. (From Rankin Co. marriage records Book 3, page 76). William was born in Alabama 11 Nov 1831 (1). He put off his marriage for a time because he had his mother to care for (2). In the 1870 Census her name appears to be Labra Gray (name not clear) (3), and she and two children, Milly (4) and Robert M. are listed with William's family so we know Robert M. was brother of Wm M. Gray. * Mr. & Mrs. Clyde E. Huffman say William had a brother named George (killed by a Negro) who married a Russell. No children. (5). Another brother was Benager who married a Roberts. (6). They (Will and Caroline) lived in the Crossroads Community near the present Crossroads Church. When the house burned, a smaller house was built across the road and is still there. When William died the property passed into the hands of his son, John Robert Little Gray. The following is a list of their children and their birthdates. All these children lived to be adults which was unusual for that time. SMITH

William M. Gray was a farmer. He served in the Civil War and fought at Vicksburg. (From Dept of Archives and History, Jackson, Miss) (7)

Caroline Sarah used to tell her grandchildren how frightened she was during the Civil War of robbers and Union soldiers while William was away. One time before he entered the service, William had gone to town for supplies and was late getting home. Caroline Sarah had turned the lamp down low and set it in the fireplace. The dogs started barking furiously at some soldiers who threw sticks of stove wood at them and ran them away, then came into the house. Caroline had young children and was afraid they would be hurt, but the soldiers just went into the kitchen and took all the food.

William died 13 Aug 1899, and is buried in Shiloh Cemetery. Caroline Sarah lived for 25 years after her husband's death. She was slender, not very tall, had blue-grey eyes and wore glasses in her later years. She was a person who did not like to be idle. She loved to piece quilts, and taught her grandchildren how to do this, and to make doll dresses. She would card the cotton bolts for the quilts.

Whenever the men had a log rolling, the women had a quilting. They would put a quilt into the frame and quilt it that day. Caroline lived with the family of her son, John Robert Little Gray after her husband died. John had promised his father that he would take care of her. She died 9 Dec. 1924, (8), and is buried in Shiloh cemetery beside her husband, but does not have a tombstone. Both were members of Shiloh Methodist Church.

Her obituary is copied from a newspaper clipping owned by Mrs. Linnie Etta (Gray) Stegall, a grand-daughter, now living in Jackson, Miss. (1972).

A TRIBUTE TO MRS. CAROLINE GRAY

This community was grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Caroline Gray. She passed quietly to her reward Sunday, Dec. 9th in the Crossroads community. She has been ill for sometime, and a more patient or kind person never bore their illness as she did. She never complained. Her going has cast a gloom over the entire community, for everyone loved her. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved ones left here. Our loss is Heaven's gain.

Mrs. Gray was a kind and loving mother of 8 boys and one girl. Her oldest son and daughter have preceded her to glory and welcome her to them. Her husband, too, had gone many years before, and her going was only to be united with him again in the land that knows no sorrow.

She leaves seven sons and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss. We extend to them our sympathy and commend them into God's hands, who knoweth what is best.

Mrs. Gray was a member of the Methodist church at Shiloh, and her going will leave an empty space, but her spirit will live on there. Her good influence will never die. She was 85 years, 10 months and a few days of age when death came. She was born Feb. 27, 1839, and married to Mr. William Gray 11 July 1855 by Rev. Jacob Carr.

Her life has been spent doing loving deeds for all. Everyone who knew her loved her. Again we express our sympathy and ask those grieved ones to listen as we seem to hear her say -

"Weep not, children, for me, for I'm waiting in Glory for thee."

- (1) William Gray was born in Montgomery County, Alabama.
 - (2) Not correct. He married shortly after the Grays first moved to Rankin County around 1854, when his uncle William F. Gray obtained a land patent under a military warrant. His mother was widowed in 1863, and died in 1870. After her husband's death, she and her two youngest children did live with Will and Caroline.

- (3) Her given name was Sabra, found in probate and land records in the Rankin County Courthouse. She was born in Georgia.
- (4) Actually, her name was Nelly Ann (or Nellyann) Semantha. The census taker's handwriting made it look like Milly. She married E.M. Walters in 1870.
- (5) His brother was George H. Gray, who was married to a woman named Martha C. (last name unknown). Believed to be the SMITH Martha Gray buried in Antioch Cemetery, Rankin County. He was a merchant and the Postmaster of Ralaigh, Smith Co., Miss. He was living as late at 1900 (Census). No confirmation on the report of having been killed. They did in fact have quite a few children. At least 4 are buried in the Lower Ralaigh cemetery. Their sister Mary Gray Hobson also lived in Smith County (Rankin County Probate records) He was the executor of his father's estate (Richard Gray).
- (6) His brother was Benjamin Andrew Gray, who served in Co. D, 6th Miss. Inf., CSA, and fought at the Battle of Shiloh, Tenn. He was married to Renvy C. Rhodes. He owned a good bit of property on both sides of the Rankin/Scott county line east of the Crossroads church.
- (7) William was in Co. G, 39th Miss Inf., CSA.
- (8) Actually, 1923 according to the death certificate. She was buried on Dec. 10, 1923. For some reason the doctor who filled out her death certificate gave her sex as MALE. Oh, well.....

Note - Allen David Kersh was the second child of ^{Jacob} ~~Allen David~~ Kersh and ~~Sarah Regene (Rhodes) Kersh~~. He was born in S.C. and came to Miss. with his parents in 1833, where they settled in Rankin Co. When he was 20 years old, he married Sarah Regene Rhodes, age 15. The ceremony was performed by John M. Sims, J. P. This record is found in Book 2, page 7 in Circuit clerks office in Rankin Co. courthouse, Brandon, Miss.

Allen was a farmer and lived in the Crossroads Community in Rankin Co. Both he and his wife were members of Shiloh Methodist Church. They reared a large family - 11 children. Little is known about most of these children. Mildred Elizabeth married Little R. Gray 24 Dec. 1857. She died 8 Sept. 1859 and is probably buried in Shiloh Cemetery, although her grave has no marker. No further record has been found of Little R. Gray. Martha Ann Renvy died 17 Sept. 1848 at age 5. We know nothing of Samuel Lewis except his birth and death dates. Mary Catherine (Mollie C.) married Wm. F. Buckalew 26 Nov. 1879. In 1880 they were living with Mary's mother. No further trace has been found. Enos Ezzer was a bachelor. He lived somewhere in the Miss. Delta, died, and is buried there.

Allen David was the administrator of the estate of his brother, Richard C. Kersh, who died in 1854 from yellow fever, and is buried in Brandon Cemetery, Rankin Co., Miss.

Allen David and two of his sons were in the Civil War. The following is from Civil War records at the Dep't. of Archives and History, Jackson, Miss.:

KERSH, A. D. Pvt., Co. A, 3rd Bn. (Cooper's) Miss. State Cav. CSA.

(Full name- Jacob Daniel Wesley Kersh. Captured and sent to Fort Douglas, Ill. where he died from typhoid fever. He is buried near Fort Douglas.)

Allen David and his wife are buried in Shiloh Methodist Cemetery, although Sarah Regene does not have a marker on her grave. The will of Allen David can be found in the office of the Chancery Clerk of Rankin Co., Brandon, Miss. in Record of Wills, Book 1, page 74.
