

WATER WATERS NEWSLETTER

Edition No. 4 (November 1998 - January 1999) January 20, 1999

Up and Running

After a period of over 2 months, which if you are a computer addict, never seem to end - we are back in business! You'll have to bear with me though, this is a new system and requires some getting used to.

Did you know...

That Thomas J Waters, son of David L. Waters, served in Company C, 39th Mississippi Infantry? Per his pension application, he enlisted in the Spring of 1862 and was a resident of Scott County, MS at the time. His wife's name was Harriett, and they married in 1878 in Pelahatchie, MS. Thomas is also listed in the multi volume work, The Official Records of the War of the Rebellion, as well as being on a list of Confederate soldiers of Sear's brigade who charged to the Union line at the Battle of Franklin, TN on November 30, 1864. This charge was a deadly frontal assault, on entrenched Union lines in which 5 Confederate Generals were killed.

A very special thanks to Rick Love for providing this information!

Family Branches...

Thanks to the efforts of Juanita Waters, many other "cousins" have been found! One of them, Glen Deas, provided us with much information on Nellie S. Gray. Juanita also managed to find other descendants of Peter Bell Waters, who will be sending information on that line of the family. Way to go Juanita, keep up the good work!

New Year

I wish happiness and good fortune for each of you for this New Year and all of those that follow. As we begin 1999, please remember to do something nice for someone in need. It doesn't require anything more than time, yet it can make a difference. Make a resolution to make each day count. You'd be surprised how good it will make you feel.

These are all descendants of the Nellie S. Gray line. Nellie's parents turned out to be Richard Gray and Sabra Williams. If you recall, we originally thought her mother's name was "Libray". Working together, we find more pieces of the puzzle!

Newsletter Changes

While we have gotten numerous letters of praise for the newsletter, we have not been receiving enough data to justify printing each month. So, at least for the time being, we will print quarterly (every three months). This will allow me more time to research the family tree. We do have quite a bit of the lineage, and if you would like a copy of your ancestry line as we know it to date, I will be more than happy to send it to you, upon request, at no charge. The next Newsletter will be printed the last part of May.

Facts and Stories...

Caroline Sarah Kersh, born 27 February 1839, married William M. Gray, born 11 Nov 1831, son of Richard Gray and Sabra "Williams" Gray. William was a farmer, served in the Civil War and fought at Vicksburg. Source: Department of Archives and History - Jackson, Mississippi.

Caroline Sarah told stories to her grandchildren about how frightened she was, during the Civil War, of robbers and Union soldiers while William was away. One time, before William entered the service, he had gone to town for supplies and was late getting home. Caroline Sarah had turned the lamp down low and set it in the fireplace. The dogs started barking furiously at some soldiers who threw sticks of stove wood at them and ran them away. Then the soldiers came into the house. Caroline had young children and was afraid they would be hurt, but the soldiers just went into the kitchen and took all the food.

William M. Gray died 13 August 1899 and Caroline Sarah died 9 Dec 1924. They are both buried in Shiloh Cemetery.

Military Service...

James A. Waters served in Company G, 20th Mississippi Infantry. He enlisted July 1861 as a resident of Scott County, Mississippi. He served the entire war, was not wounded and was on a 10 day furlough when the Army was surrendered in North Carolina in 1865. He was age 62 and a resident of Scott County, when he made application for a Mississippi pension July 9, 1900.

Peter Bell Waters served in Company C, 39th Mississippi Infantry. He was 19 when he enlisted April 1862 in Jackson, Mississippi and was one of the prisoners

Newsletter Changes

Regrettfully, I will no longer be able to publish the newsletter, due to other obligations. My husband has just received his NASCAR Craftsman Truck license as a driver, and I am channeling all my efforts into making his dream of being a professional race driver come true. God has opened a lot of doors for us, but the road is still a tough one. In order to keep costs to a minimum, my husband "hired" me to be his photographer, PR person and personal manager. Actually, I think he volunteered me.. I keep telling him that in order to "hire" me, he has to pay me.. (grin) Please keep us in your prayers. I have enjoyed working with you all these last months, and thank you all for the nice cards and letters I have received. Juanita Waters has graciously accepted the challenge of taking over the publishing, and I know you will all work with her to help make it a success. Her contact information follows:
