From early records it seems that the McCools were Scotch-Irish Quakers, who came to America seeking religious freedom, new opportunities, and perhaps fleeing from famine. Before 1717 there were McCools in Pennsylvania; in that year a John McCool of George's Creek, Pa., married Mary Howie (see Immigration of Irish Quakers into Pennsylvania from 1682 to 1750, p. 389).

At Duck Creek Monthly Meeting (Camden), Delaware, a Gabriel McCool produced a certificate for himself and brother James McCool from the meeting in Dunglane, County Londonderry, Ireland, rec'd 9th month, 22nd day, 1725. From the Delaware Calendar of Wills Kent Co., Probate Records 1680-1800, p. 59, we find Gabriel McCool, a weaver, administrator of the estate of James McCool (evidently the brother), Jan. 23, 1729 -- Registration of Wills Ek. h., Folio 99.

About 1730 a company of Friends from Pa. and Maryland obtained a land grant in Va., on Opequan Creek, in the Shenandoah Valley, near Winchester, Va. By 1743 we find a James McCool (perhaps son of Gabriel or James) with his wife Ann Wright (dau. of James and Mary Wright) in Frederick Co., Va. James McCool was born 1709; died Feb. 9, 1751 (six months before birth of youngest child, Gabriel). His wife Ann b. 1725; d. after 1758 in Va. Their children:

1. Mary McCool b. 11/27/1743; m. Mercer Babb
2. John McCool b. 8/10/1745; m. Elenor Lewis
3. James McCool b. 12/12/1747; m. _____
4. Martha McCool b. 10/31/1749; m. Joseph Hackney
5. Gabriel McCool b. 8/17/1751; m. Elizabeth Wright (his 1st cousin-dau. of John and Rachel Wells Wright).

Then in 1753 the Widow Ann McCool married Thomas Pugh and had by him 7 daughters, including Elizabeth Pugh who married John Jay and the youngest daughter Rachel Pugh, who was born in South Carolina. In 1769 the Pughs with Gabriel McCool, the Mercer Babbs, and others moved from Hopewell Monthly Meeting, Va. to Bush River Monthly Meeting, Newberry District, S. C., where the Pughs stayed about six years, and then returned to Va. Gabriel McCool and wife Elizabeth Wright McCool stayed in S. C. Their children:

1. Rachel McCool b. 11/27/1774; m. Joseph Evans
2. Ann McCool b. 11/11/1776
3. James McCool b. 10/13/1779; m. Charity Chapmen in S. C.
4. John McCool b. 11/10/1780
5. Thomas b. 3/3/1782 -- known as Squire McCool; m. in S. C. & moved first to Ohio and then to Iowa, where he died (He is not the ancestor of the Mississippi McCools).
6. Gabriel McCool, Jr. b. 1/12/1784.

Some of these McCools (including Rachel and Joseph Evans & James McCool and wife Charity) went back to Va. in 1805 and not long afterwards most of the group moved to Ohio; were settlers around Troy and West Milton, Ohio. Others remained in South Carolina, from which they migrated to Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky.

When the Virginia McCools came into South Carolina, other McCools had preceeded them; for Adam McCool, Sr. was operating a ferry on Broad River between Union and Chester Counties -- his sons were Adam, Jr., John, and Joseph, and daughters Rachel and Mary and Martha. A grandson James A. McCool came to the Attala-Madison County area with his daughter Nancy McCool Massey and son John McCool.

In the 1800 census of Abbeville District, S. C. we find a Benjamin McCool with daughters and 7 sons; living near by was an Allen Gentry with several daughters and not too distant a John Gentry with daughters. By 1810 these people were no longer in this district. By 1830 there were eight or nine McCool households in Montgomery County, Ala.
